

QUESTIONS AND NEGATION

Ask a yes/no question; then ask for the underlined word and give a negative answer:

*Example: You go to school.
 Do you go to school?
 Where do you go to?
 You don't go to school.*

1. They are very happy in their new home.
2. Lizzy will drive to the place tomorrow.
3. A big tree is growing in the garden.
4. My friend Christina has a fast car.
5. Alexandra is writing a long letter to her brother.
6. Carl works in the big company.
7. We have got 13 books.
8. I like English very much.
9. Gwen Stefani is a famous singer.
10. Jenny and her friends will go to Spain.

11. Our parents hate their neighbors.
12. Suzana buys the blue candles.
13. Conny and Mel are in my car.
14. My car is very old.
15. The lamp costs a lot of money.
16. The ugly house is the post office.
17. There is a new house in the city center.
18. Mike will climb up the tree.
19. Linda has three children.
20. I'll phone you later.

21. Stephanie wants to play with the other children.
22. I write a beautiful postcard from my holiday in Italy.
23. The family is coming from the hotel.
24. I want the green car.
25. There are many stones on the road.
26. Children cry very often.
27. Today's newspapers are reporting about the terrible accident.
28. Mona is happy because the sun is shining.
29. In summer, there are many people on the beach.
30. The airplane will land in a few minutes.