

one – ones – or nothing (X)

Fill in one, ones or nothing (X)

1. My dad has a fast computer. It's a very new _____.
  2. My car is green. Money's _____ is blue.
  3. I'd like some jeans, please! – The pink or the yellow _____?
  4. How many stickers do you want? I want four _____, please!
  5. This film is boring, but that _____ is exciting!
  6. Tom and Ronny have nice trousers. Tom's _____ are blue and yellow, and Ronny's _____ have little stars on them.
  7. My mascot is a yellow frog, Alan's _____ mascot is a blue _____.
  8. Have you got a green frog? – No, but I've got two yellow _____ and a red _____.
-
1. Which trousers do you want? The green _____ here or the blue _____ over there?
  2. Mary's bike is yellow. Sammy's _____ is black.
  3. There are also some baby-dogs here. Do you have some sausages for the little _____?
  4. This book here is new, but that _____ is very old.
  5. I have thirty stickers. My sister Sandy has got fifty _____. My stickers are new, and Sandy's _____ are old.
  6. They have two computers. Tony's _____ is fast, and the _____ in Sammy's room is slow.
  7. Today, Ronnie couldn't find his socks, so he is wearing a blue and a green _____ now.